THERE WAS A SOLDIER

Delivered in partnership – the community says, “Thank You”

Friday 26th October 2018, from 7pm

West Kirk of Calder, West End, West Calder, EH55 8EN

A not to be missed event ... “There Was A Soldier” is a compelling tribute to the people of Edinburgh, the Lothians and beyond, during WWI, and to Bangour - Edinburgh’s War Hospital.

OpenCast tell the story, through music, poetry, slides and humour, the story of young men who enlisted with great enthusiasm to defend their country.

TICKETS: free of charge via Eventbrite
